

National Guideline

For supporting the learning, participation, and wellbeing of autistic children and their families in Australia

Guiding Principles

Child and family-centred

Individualised

Strengths-focused

Holistic

Honour childhood

Foundation for the future

Ethical

Culturally safe

Respecting Australia's First Nations Peoples

Evidence-based

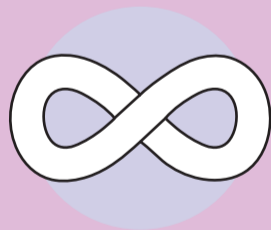

Assent (children)

Informed consent (parents)

Qualified practitioners

Neurodiversity-affirming

Parent and family-affirming

Timely and accessible

Coordinated

These Guiding Principles tell us what is important to think about when we support autistic children and their families.

Register to download the Guideline and access additional resources at autismcrc.com.au/supporting-children

© Copyright Autism CRC 2024. All rights reserved.